“THE ESSENCE OF A WELL GROOMED MAN IS ADMIRER BY MANY”

Hello, my beautiful readership. I stopped by to share what the sexy bearded men of Virginia have been up to as of late. They are taking the healthy beard game to the highest level of self-care. As a Blogger on the scene, I’ve found myself in awe, almost mesmerized with the interest expressed in health and fashion. When you look good, you also feel good. Former navy officer, Dapper Luq is also one of our podcast co-host. He’s changing the men of Hampton Roads perspective on being suited up, classy as well as unique. Arrington joined him and his amazing stylist Patricia recently for the launch of his new TV project. Health and fashion go hand in hand. It is literally impossible to have one without the other. Congratulations Dapper Luq, we are extremely happy for you.

...he smells of tropical paradise

Absolutely no woman on the planet would resist delivering a kiss on the neck of any bearded gentleman wearing this fragrance.

Designer Dapper Luq, CEO Arrington, and fashion stylist Patricia Always A Lady.

“Opportunities don’t just happen, many times you have to create them.”
